Redwood City Welcomes New Oil Industry

Ship Misses Channel, Held in Mudbank At Low Tide

Redwood City today welcomed to its port the Hawaiian Standard, first oil tanker to dock at the Peninsula's only harbor, as the harbinger of a new era of industrial progress.

The arrival signalized the "arrival" of Redwood City as a major oil products distribution depot, for Standard Oil Co. officials announced that with its new county seat facilities, the Redwood City branch will extend its territory from the San Francisco County line south to San Jose and Gilroy, and to Milpitas and Irvington in the East Bay.

Ceremonies were delayed when the 1323-ton motorship shoved its nose outside the channel and embedded it in the mud. It was stuck opposite Beacon 2, about a mile from the dock and 300 yards inside harbor mouth.

EXPLAINS MISHAP

Explaining the mishap, Port Manager Walter Murphy said a minus tide this morning was a contributing factor, but that the channel depth was sufficient at all times for vessels drawing much more water than the Standard Oil tanker.

On hand to greet the ship were Mayor Louis C. Christensen and the official party, including Port Commission President Henry Beeger, whose efforts to bring the oil company depot to the harbor today were crowned with success.

Among others in the official party were Mayor Frank P. Simmen of San Mateo, Mayor Prescott Scott of Hillsborough, Mayor Asa Hull of San Carlos, City Manager Earl P. Wilsey of Hillsborough, City Engineer Fletcher Bixby and his assistant, A. G. James of Palo Alto; Supervisor John Poole, County Executive Frederick Peterson, and E. E. Bullard, traveling WPA engineer.

Standard Oil Co. was represented by J. C. Wagner, district sales manager and his assistant, George A. Gillespie, of San Jose; F. E. Roper, superintendent of construction, San Francisco; H. N. Clark, transportation superintendent; John Beard, Redwood City branch manager; D. Danielson, plant superintendent; J. H. McEachern, manager, marine department, and J. A. Monighan, district engineer.

According to Beard, the new storage plant at the port has one tank of 308,000-gallon capacity, and two smaller ones of 85,000 gallons each. The largest type of tank truck on the Coast will be used to haul gasoline, stove oil, and other products from Redwood City all through the district's enlarged territory.

While the Hawaiian Standard sought to free itself from the mud with the help of the Morgan Shell, Pacific Portland Cement Co. tugboat, the official party adjourned to the luncheon sponsored jointly by Chamber of Commerce and Kiwanis Club. The hospitality of the two organizations covered the embarrassing situation gracefully, and Capt. J. Orlando's place was vacant.

The Hawaiian Standard docked at 1 p.m. and awaited the return of the official party from the luncheon.

At the luncheon, at which Sam H. Winklebleck was master of ceremonies, Joe Territo, chamber of commerce president, delivered the welcoming address. Monighan responded for the Standard Oil Co., declaring the new storage plant and pipeline facilities represented a $40,000 investment and were only a start on the ultimate development planned.

Wagner cited Los Angeles as an example of development through port development, and predicted a bright future for Redwood City.

With the return of the official party, Mr. Beeger presented a scroll to Captain Orlando, Mayor Christensen delivered the delayed welcoming address, and Beard responded on behalf of the company.

The scroll read:

Greetings: to the Standard Oil Co. of Calif. and the officers and crew of the motorship, Hawaiian Standard, the first tanker to use the Municipal Dock at the Port of Redwood City.

Signed by
Mayor Louis C. Christensen,
Henry A. Beeger,
President Port Commission.

Alliance Local To Stage New Protest March

District Heads Map Plan To Cut Case Loads

Developments in the WPA situation:

1. Redwood City Local, Workers Alliance, planned another demonstration at 3 p.m. tomorrow.

2. Robert Meade, area manager demoted to "supervisor of operations and co-ordinator, announced 1000 workers would be dropped in this WPA area, some 269 in San Mateo County.

3. President Roosevelt gave an off-hand opinion that the 130-hour work month can be changed only by an act of Congress.

4. Atty. Gen. Murphy ordered a federal grand jury investigation into the WPA strike situation.

Progress of half a dozen work relief projects in the county was endangered by the impending layoffs, it was believed. According to Charles Jensen, county WPA supervisor, no definite plans have been made but it was anticipated layoffs would be made gradually between now and Aug. 31 in order that the State Relief Administration may take up its increased direct relief burden.

854 ON ROLLS

Jensen said there were 854 on WPA rolls in San Mateo County yesterday. Projects were operating at Sequoia High School and the Alameda de las Pulgas bridge in Redwood City, at Flood and Memorial Parks, Pescadero, Alpine and San Gregorio Rds., Millbrae and Daly City Parks and on the Hillsborough water system. Sewing, library and recreation projects are carried on throughout the county, he said.

Plans for the Redwood City demonstration were contained in a mimeographed handbill distributed by the Redwood City Local, Workers' Alliance, titled "Save the WPA!"

It contained a plea to join a protest demonstration and parade at the park back of the county courthouse at 3 p.m. tomorrow. Demands of the alliance, listed in the bulletin:

(1) Prevailing hourly wage on all jobs, (2) Increase in monthly wage in South, but no cuts in North and West, (3) Stop arbitrary layoff of hundreds of thousands and give the President power to adjust the funds, (4) Repeal the 18-month lay-off provision, (5) Restore the arts projects.

The bulletin placed the responsibility "for this assault upon living standards of the American people" on the economy bloc of Republican and Tory Democrats.

Reduction of about 10,000 names from Northern California WPA rolls by Aug. 31 will start within a week with the abolition of branch managers in area offices of Oakland, Sacramento, Stockton, Fresno, Santa Rosa and San Jose, Administrator William R. Lawson announced.

The reduction, necessitated by the new congressional relief act, will affect about 6000 men and 4000 women who have been employed continuously for 18 months.

TO CUT SALARIES

Lawson said the reduction, affecting 23 per cent of the current case load, would reduce administrative expenses 40 per cent.

"Many of the work projects which are highly expensive to operate—because their isolation in remote rural and mountain areas requires extensive traveling, supervisory and inspection costs—may be closed down," Lawson said.

Mr. Roosevelt told reporters it was his off-hand judgment except in an unusual emergency WPA Commissioner Harrington has no authority to waive the requirement, which caused widespread strikes of skilled relief workers last week.

AFL leaders had argued the law gave Harrington authority to restore the prevailing hourly wage scale for skilled workers.

32,582 DISMISSED

Harrington reported 32,582 workers had been dismissed for staying away from their jobs five days during the walkouts. He said the number on strike yesterday was 26,511, or fewer than one-third the number out five days previously.

The Workers Alliance, a union of WPA employes, went ahead with its plans for a nationwide protest tomorrow against the new law. David Lasser, president, said there would be a general stoppage of work and parades in many cities.

Meanwhile Murphy ordered a federal grand jury investigation of the Minneapolis WPA strike situation.

He ordered it following an investigation by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

"The FBI will continue its investigation and its findings will be presented to this grand jury," Murphy's announcement said.

"The grand jury will return indictments if, in its opinion, the facts warrant. The FBI information will be disclosed only to the grand jury."

Justice Department officials have persistently refused to disclose what the FBI investigation of the past several days has uncovered in the Minneapolis WPA strike which last week resulted in two fatalities.

The new relief law forbids any person from keeping a man from work on the WPA if he is eligible and wants to work.

Italian Club Picnic To Be Held Sunday

The Italian American Progressive Club of Redwood City, in conjunction with the Council of Italian Clubs of San Mateo County, will hold its annual picnic at New Portola Park, west of Menlo Park, next Sunday, it was announced today. Clubs in Daly City, South San Francisco, San Mateo, and Menlo Park will participate.

Court Jails Secker On Driving Charge

George (Barney) Secker, 40-year-old Redwood City butcher who yesterday pleaded guilty to a charge of driving while intoxicated, this morning was sentenced to six months in the county jail, with five months suspended. The conviction, before Judge Aylett R. Cotton, was the third on the same charge for Secker.

SFPI Shows Gains In County Building

Illustrating San Mateo County's rapid growth, San Francisco Peninsula Inc., in its bulletin today listed the increases in building permits through May, 1939, over the first five months of 1938. The county, it was stated, is the second most rapidly growing area in the "fastest growing state."

Increases in building permits over the first five months of 1938 were listed as follows: Redwood City, $171,511; Burlingame, $48,647; San Mateo, $158,712; Hillsborough, $15,499; San Bruno, $178,500; San Carlos, $59,422; Atherton, $53,735; Belmont, $50,000; Menlo Park, $40,625.

Texas last year furnished more than 36 per cent of all natural gas produced and marketed in the United States.

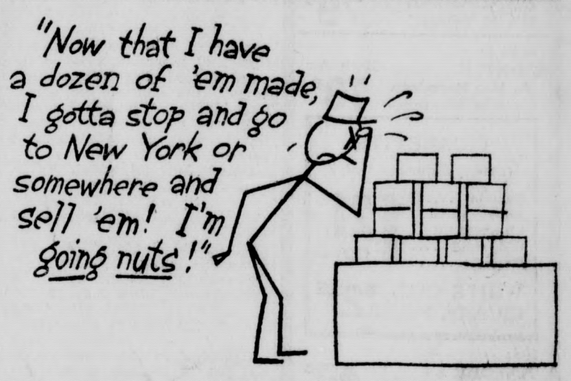
Dear Johns-Manville Redwood City Plant

Why wouldn't it be better after all, if every worker were his own capitalist, and if he ran a one-man business in a little shop, did his own selling, etc.?

GEORGE CITIZEN



WHAT IF EACH WORKER WERE A ONE-MAN FACTORY

Dear George

All right, just for fun, let's reduce "big business" down to terms of ONE WORKER.

Let's just imagine every worker in business for himself.

He'd have to think up something to make and maybe raise enough money to buy himself $5500 worth of tools, materials, etc. (that's about the amount J-M stockholders have invested for land, tools, buildings and equipment for each J-M employee.) Then he'd have to go out and sell his product all over the world, and keep thinking up something to sell if his present product should suddenly go out of style.

He'd go nuts, trying to play so many bases on the ball team.

Now, "big business" is nothing more or less than an arrangement for dividing these chores and worries among a lot of people so that each one can attend to his own particular job and so that all together they can produce and sell more goods without anybody going crazy.

It's a known fact that if each of the ten thousand jobholders in my company, Johns-Manville, for instance, made J-M products in their own workshops, sold them, sent out the bills and collected the money, they couldn't possibly produce anywhere near as much at such low prices as the team of J-M stockholders, workers, management and machinery can produce, working together.

Take any one of my workers. He could, all by himself, maybe, make asbestos shingles or another of my company's 1200 products, and go out and sell them—if he had had the idea, if he had an asbestos mine, if he could raise enough money to buy machinery, and if he had a lot of time to travel.

But, instead, he finds it better to depend on the J-M research laboratories for new ideas to keep him busy and to work up new products for him to make tomorrow and tomorrow. He "borrows" money from our J-M stockholders for his tools and materials (for which the stockholders have averaged about 4 cents per year in "rent" during the last 10 years out of each dollar of J-M sales). He uses his company's mines for his raw materials. And there is a force of nearly 900 J-M salesmen out selling the products he makes.

If people thought of a big company like this—that is, as ONE team—instead of dividing it into two teams with capital on one team and labor on the other—I think it would be a much truer picture of the real situation.

One man could, of course, play the whole team himself, if he wanted to, but it wouldn't be much of a base-ball nine, would it?

Supervisors Adjust Coast Land Values

Adjustment of assessments on Coastside lands owned by Carl Torello, Dante Dianda and Giovanni Patroni, prominent county ranchers, reducing them to about 80 per cent of the former tax assessment, was granted by the board of supervisors Monday as it closed its annual sitting period as a board of equalization.

In addition, the board recommended to the county assessor's office that the San Mateo County Preventorium, which conducts a tuberculosis sanitarium in San Mateo, be dropped from the tax rolls.

Acting Chairman Fred E. Beer reported that it probably would be at least two weeks before the final budget estimates could be compiled for public hearing.

Redwood City Gain In Population Shown

Redwood City's population has increased 6.4 per cent in the past year, according to statistics released today by the Bureau of the Census in San Francisco. Burlingame's population was up 2.5 per cent and San Mateo's 12.5 per cent, according to the figures.

Lower Movie Prices Asked

Redwood City's boy councilmen, ranging from 12 to 15 years, in a meeting preceding the city council session, marched through an agenda of matters particularly important to youth, and heard reports of city officials.

The youngsters, with a business-like efficiency which their elders could scarcely better, brought up the following matters which they believed would aid the youth of the city, and referred them to the various city departments for consideration:

1. Placing a life guard at the Redwood City Yacht Harbor.

2. Providing a playground and park in the Redwood Highlands district, the recreation department to work out a plan for this park.

3. Encouraging through financial support an aviation field for Redwood City, if the opportunity presents itself.

4. Requiring headlights and taillights on all bicycles in Redwood City not later than Oct. 1.

5. Constructing "at least one sidewalk" on all streets within a mile of the city's schools.

6. Trimming all hanging limbs on trees over sidewalks.

7. Suspending operator's licenses of all "jitterbug" drivers "for three weeks at least." A "jitterbug" driver was described as a "high school or college youth who drives recklessly."

8. Attempting to obtain the following scale of movie prices: 10 cents for those under 12; 20 cents for those between 12 and 15, and an adult price for those over 15.

The boys refused to take action on a proposal for a 9 o'clock curfew law.

"Mayor" Jess Nelson called on Chief of Police C. L. Collins for a report on bicycle licensing, to which the chief reported there had been approximately 850 city bicycles licensed and that all licensed bikes which had been lost or stolen had been recovered.

Fire Chief Mark E. Ryan reported 51 lots had been burned off by the fire department; that two drills had been held, with an average of 16 firemen answering each drill call.

The council adjourned until 1 o'clock Wednesday when they will meet again to appoint police and firemen and other city officials who will rule during Joseph Lee Week, July 23-28.

Councilmen included Bob Conner, Fred Nicolai, Dick Jeffrey, Bob Johnson, Bill Langston, Glen Lewis and Clerk George Guntli.

J. B. Roebuck of Stockton, Calif., and Dr. L. L. Roebuck of Marion, O., saw each other recently for the first time in 43 years.

MENLO PARK NEWS NOTES

DUFFS VISIT HERE

MENLO PARK, July 21.—Dan Duff and family spent last week here visiting old friends. Mr. Duff, known to his friends in Menlo Park as pompadour Dan, left here for Portland 25 years ago and there entered business and became wealthy. He was a nephew of the late M. F. Duff and for a number of years clerked in the Duff and Doyle Store. Dan is pleasantly remembered in Menlo's past for he was a gay boy in those long ago days, no party being complete without him and no dance a success unless he was present. There were only a scant few of those happy carefree days to greet him on his return to his youthful scenes. Many of the friends he knew had gone to other localities while a few had departed to that land from which none returns. Mr. Duff is motoring through the state and expects to be home next month.

Mayor Cooper is on a fishing trip to the high Sierra. His friends in Menlo Park are expecting trout contributions from the popular official.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Natwit are vacationing in Canada and the East. They visited the New York Fair last week and made a tour of Boston and nearby cities. Mr. Natwit is connected with the San Mateo school department. His pretty wife was the former Margaret Harrington.

St. Joseph Alumni netted the neat sum of $85 on the carnival at the Kuck Hotel grounds Saturday evening. The dance and concessions proved a wonderful success, due to the energy and work of Jack Welch ,who headed the arrangements committee.

Father McKeon is enjoying a well-earned vacation in Yosemite. During his absence Father Lacey is in charge of the parish.

It was learned today that the government is seeking a new location on Santa Cruz Ave. for the local post office. Last year an appropriation of $75,000 was made for a building and site. It is believed the land will be purchased this year and that work on construction will start next Spring, when mail delivery will be inaugurated in the city and immediate vicinity.

The pottery department of the Allied Arts in Stanford Park has moved to San Carlos. The plant did a good business, employing many artisans from Menlo Park and Palo Alto. The owners of the concern reside in San Carlos, hence the removal.

The culmination of a romance begun at the opening day of the exposition last February will terminate in September when two young Menlo Park people will wed in San Francisco. Their names will be announced next week.

Contributions are still coming in for the building fund of St. Joseph's Gymnasium. Edward Derry, chairman of the committee on building, says he will start work on plans and specifications early next month.

Mrs. R. Jarrett and her daughter, Miss Helen Jarrett of Portland and Oregon, are visiting Oscar and Wayne Lindquist. Miss Jarrett is on the St. Vincent's Hospital staff at Portland.

Isabelle Weeden Lindquist and Biley and Emma Roberta attended the Salinas Rodeo Friday.

Paul Thomas, who is employed on the S. S. Lurline, visited his aunt, Mrs. W. H. Weeden, Wednesday.

Isabelle Weeden Lindquist was installed as Noble Grand of Palo Alto Rebekah Lodge 291 Wednesday night by Mrs. Guy Troxel of San Mateo, district deputy grand president. Honoring the new noble grand, who is a vocalist and musician, musical notes were the decorative motif in the lodge room. Flowers in pastel shades spelled out her name on the banquet table and favors were musical notes containing candies.

McClellan, 85, To Visit Fair

A new claimant to the title of first white child born in Redwood City presented himself Monday. The honor, previously given to Chase Littlejohn of 323 East Brewster Ave., born at the county seat in '55, was claimed by James McClellan, now of Santa Barbara, who says he was born on the old Hawes Ranch June 29, 1854.

McClellan and his brother, P. E. McClellan, born in Stockton in '61, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Deleau, 253 Oak Ave., Redwood City. They plan to see the fair.

After an absence of 60 years from Redwood City, did they recognize it? Well, to some extent—an old barn on Woodside Rd. and the former home of General Connor back of the courthouse, and that's all.

The Redwood City pioneer, and the term seems correctly used here, told a story of a feud between his father, David McClellan, who came to Redwood City in '52 and squatted on the Hawes Ranch, and the ranch managers. Repeated efforts to evict McClellan failed, the son said, until his father voluntarily left to join the land rush to Modoc County.

In those early days, Redwood City's first son recalled, wild hay was a valuable crop, bringing $110 a ton in San Francisco. His father paid his hands $5 a day, two drinks of whiskey and four meals to harvest the hay with hand scythes.

The McClellan boys were cowboys in Modoc County for a number of years, and the elder brother spent two years in the Klondike hunting gold. An adventursome life has finally placed him in retirement in Santa Barbara, while his brother continues to be active in business as a broker in newspapers, job plants, inventories and appraisals, in Los Angeles.

In the early days in Redwood City they were "neighbors" of Gertrude Atherton on the Atherton Ranch. Both say they knew her well.

McGonigle Sentenced To 90 Days in Jail

Donald McGonigle, Arizonan and former Redwood City real estate salesman, this morning was sentenced by Superior Judge Aylett R. Cotton to 90 days in the county jail, with 30 days suspended and with credit for 34 days served. McGonigle was convicted of driving while under the influence of narcotics. He has a prison record which includes two terms in McNeill Island and one in Leavenworth, both federal penitentiaries.

$2.16 Average Saving in R. C.

Effective the first of next month, the Pacific Gas & Electric Co.'s natural gas will be billed at rates designed to save commercial and domestic customers a million dollars a year, according to the State Railroad Commission.

To the average Redwood City consumer, the new rates mean a saving of $2.16 per annum.

The minimum charge in unincorporated areas in this district has been reduced from $1.15 to $1.05 a month.

The new rates as applied to Redwood City:

Cu. Ft.	Old Bill	New Bill
1000	$1.39	$1.35
3000	2.75	2.57
5000	3.85	3.67
10,000	6.60	6.42

According to Ray C. Wakefield, president of the commission, the rates are designed to afford the greatest percentage savings to the small home resident and commercial customer, although in many communities and in all unincorporated areas the minimum charge has also been reduced.

The average Redwood City customer, it was explained, uses between 1000 and 5000 cubic feet except in the three months of "winter weather" when the average use increases to 10,000 cubic feet.

"This $1,000,000 in savings is part of the $3,200,000 reduction in the rates of Pacific Gas & Electric Co., announced by the commission some weeks ago following the termination of several related investigations," Wakefield said. "Most of the lower rates for electric charges are already in effect but in a short time the commission will have completed its work in reducing electric rates, by an additional $250,000 in that highly built up territory immediately adjacent but outside incorporated cities."

This Is a Double Duty Kitchen

PARAPHRASING the old saying about a rule—it is a poor kitchen that cannot be worked two ways. Architects designing the majority of small homes today realize that a house is more useable and convenient when some rooms can be used for two purposes, as desired. And certainly, the kitchen is expected to offer space for a dining area for breakfast and snacks.

Note that the kitchen illustrated above has one wall of glass block with a casement window cut in the center; thus, whosoever breakfasts at the little table for two has brightness and a view of the out-of-doors besides.

The high-speed modern gas range located in the center of the adjoining wall makes it easy to cook breakfast in double-quick time and serve it piping hot; trays placed in the vertical cabinet at the side of the range are ever ready for collecting the dishes to carry to the sink.

PENINSULA AUTHORITIES HUNT SUSPECT IN $200 CHECK CASE

Police in Palo Alto, San Francisco and San Jose today were on the lookout for J. K. Stokes, wanted on charges of passing forged checks on merchants in these cities, amounting to more than $200.

Palo Alto police declared Stokes allegedly stole 245 blank checks from the Delta Gamma Sorority at Stanford last week, and forged the name of Theresa L. Tate, a house official. Four checks, valued at $117.50, were passed in Palo Alto. Others for lesser amounts were passed in San Francisco and San Jose.

It was believed by Redwood City police that Stokes also passed checks on several local merchants, although police here said no reports by merchants had been filed up to 1 o'clock today.

Stokes was arrested in Palo Alto in May, 1937, on check charges, and given a year's probation, records reveal. In September of the same year he was arrested in Twin Falls, Ida., and given a sentence of from 1 to 14 years for forgery.

High School Youth Seriously Injured

John Baird Jr., 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Baird of 431 Hurlingham Ave., San Mateo, lay near death in Palo Alto Hospital today, suffering from a fractured leg and severe head injuries, as the result of a non-collision accident at 2 p. m. Monday on Sand Hill Rd. two miles west of Portola Rd.

According to State Highway Patrolman William Francis, the Baird youth, a student at the high school branch of Menlo School for Boys, was driving at a high rate of speed and failed to negotiate a turn. The car turned over several times, Francis said.

Riding with Baird was Carl Cranor, 17, also a student at the Menlo school. He miraculously escaped injury, Francis said.

In another accident covered by the highway patrol yesterday, Mrs. Ethel F. McNeill, 47, of Sky Londa near Skyline Blvd., Woodside suffered slight injuries and shock when she fell from the car driven by her husband, John P. McNeill, 49, on Junipero Serra Blvd. at San Pedro Rd., west of Colma.

BOSSWELL JAILED

Basil Bosswell, 41, Santa Cruz, was jailed in Redwood City today on a charge of stealing a paint spraying outfit from Robert Garcia, East Palo Alto, July 5. According to the sheriff's office, Bosswell admitted that he sold Garcia the outfit for $30, and then stole it. He was arrested at a San Carlos auto camp this afternoon. No bail has been set by Justice of the Peace Hugh F. Mullin Jr., San Mateo.

$18,560 Posted For Premiums

Backing up a previous prediction of "a greater success than ever" for the San Mateo County Fiesta, to be held Sept. 21 to 24 at Bay Meadows, Bruce Gibson, president of the fair association, today reported the number of floral and agricultural exhibits is 50 per cent larger than last year.

Although the Fiesta comprises a thrill packed rodeo featuring 100 performers, a sportsmen's show and wild life exhibit, an archery contest and a highlight specialty act to be announced later, its main theme is the floral and agricultural display.

"Since increasing our board of directors to 20 members we are receiving greater co-operation throughout the county," said Mr. Gibson. "The increased representation of both commercial and amateur growers of flowers or produce will make this year's Fiesta a greater attraction than ever before."

A total of $18,560 in prizes will be awarded to winning entrants in the various classifications.

The floral division this year is under the chairmanship of H. Plath of San Francisco. Mrs. F. M. Perkins of Redwood City and vice-president of the fair association is directing the home economics participation. Chairman of the executive committee of the agricultural division is George Lagomarsino of Colma.

Lagomarsino succeeds County Agricultural Commissioner Max J. Leonard, who with his staff of men has directed the agricultural displays in past years. Leonard was relieved of his duties by the board of supervisors and the fair board after the management was transferred from the former county Fiesta commission to the new fair association, it was explained.

R. C. Boy, 8, Flies To Newark

NEWARK, N. J., July 19 (AP)—His wide eyes the only betrayal of the excitement of his airplane trip from San Francisco, 8-year-old Francis Van Bedegraven arrived at Newark Airport today en route to Holland.

"He was calm the entire trip," Miss Anne Harrison, stewardess of the United Air Lines plane, said of her youthful charge, who made the journey here alone and will continue unescorted to the home of his father in Holland.

Francis, the son of Mrs. W. Tweedy of Whipple Rd. extension, Redwood City, said that he "enjoyed the trip and didn't want to go to bed."

He was scheduled to sail on the President Roosevelt from New York later today.

HERRMAN LAUDED

Garleton W. Herrmann, general chairman of the "Jubilesta" held at Bell Monti Country Clubhouse Saturday night, is receiving congratulations for the huge success of the affair. The dance floor was filled to capacity with over 175 couples dancing.

Normal temperature for some birds is 110 degrees.

One Auto Accident Causes Three More

James Quinn, 38, 907 Howard St., San Francisco, was confined to Mills Memorial Hospital today with several broken ribs and a possible punctured lung, as the result of being struck on Bayshore Hwy. near the San Mateo overpass about 9 o'clock Sunday by an automobile driven by Ralph A. Miller, 37, of Mountain View.

According to state highway patrolmen, Quinn and another pedestrian who could not be located after the accident had visited a tavern near the scene a short time before, and had been refused service. They were attempting to cross the highway from east to west, and the unknown person made his way through the heavy Sunday evening traffic without mishap.

Miller was not held. Quinn was reported in fair condition at the hospital.

The traffic pile-up that resulted from the accident caused another crash when four cars were involved in rear-end collisions. Slightly injured was John Freitas, 30, San Francisco, who received treatment from a private doctor in San Francisco.

Freitas was riding with Joseph Freitas, 38, also of San Francisco. Other drivers were Richard S. Schreiber, 27, and Joseph Vasquiez, 33, both of San Francisco, and William A. Toland, 56, Santa Rosa. Minor damage to the automobiles resulted.

Four persons escaped injury in Redwood City's only automobile collision over the weekend. Cars driven by William P. Cosner Jr. of Olympia, Wash., and Cesare Musante, 47, San Francisco collided at Main St. and Bayshore Hwy. at 10:20 p.m. last night, but the machines were not badly damaged. Wives of the two drivers also were unhurt, according to the report by police.

SAN CARLOS YOUTH HURT

Clarence Gentry, 22, Los Angeles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Gentry of San Carlos, was reported slightly injured in a fatal automobile-bus collision at the Famosa underpass near Bakersfield Monday. Killed were Rafael Munoz, 35, and Rafael Talebano, 30, both of Los Angeles, whose automobile hit the bus head-on. Gentry suffered lacerations over the eye, it was reported. Five others were hurt.

'Officials' Named for Joseph Lee National Recreation Week

Boys To Run Redwood City

Boy officials who are to aid in running the city during Joseph Lee National Recreation Week, starting next Monday, yesterday were appointed by the boy's "city council."

Winston Eshleman was elected city manager; Donald Cerqui, city attorney; Comte O'Connell, police judge; Thomas Flynn, fire chief, and George Welch, police chief. Members of the fire crew will include Howard Harrington, Robert Wright, Robert Lauton, James Buck, Duey Overton and Harold Zeitman. The police force will be comprised of the following: Bob Lawler, Phillip Cordrey, Leroy Morse, Robert Carney, Guy Golley and Bob Brown.

During the national recreation week, which is in memorium to Joseph Lee, who founded the national recreation movement, the boys will assume the various duties of their offices, and will be instructed, insofar as possible, by the various city department heads which they are emulating.

The council and the newly elected officials will meet again Friday at 1 p.m. in the old library building, present site of the recreation offices, for further instruction by City Recreation Commissioner Alfred Morton and Boy Recreation Commissioner Lee Alderman as to the duties of each office.

Mayor Jess Nelson, who presided at the first boys' council meeting Monday evening, and Councilman Robert Conner will speak to the new officials.

If you want to keep it a secret, don't put it in the Want Ads.

New Library Claims Record Circulation

Redwood City public library today reported a circulation of 3553 books in the first week in its new quarters, a record for the Summer vacation period according to Librarian Wilhelmina Harper. On the first day, July 10, 1233 books were circulated and 600 persons came to inspect the new quarters. Ninety-seven new members joined the library during the week, she said, also an unusual record, and 1500 persons used the reading rooms.

During the recent convention of librarians in San Francisco, 100 delegates visited the Redwood City establishment, Miss Harper said. Among them were delegates from Santiago, Chile, and Dublin, Ireland.

At the July meeting of the library board, Dr. N. C. Cummings was elected president, Sanford B. Dole was re-elected secretary-treasurer. Other members: Mrs. A. S. Kalenborn, Mrs. Z. T. Thorning, and O. K. Whittenberg.

Brother of R. C. Man Succumbs to Illness

Simon Gonzales, 40, Firebaugh, Calif., who died in a San Francisco hospital Tuesday was a brother of Manuel Gonzales, 97 Willow St., Redwood City; Mrs. Maria Bargas and Miss Eulalia Gonzales of Pacioma, Calif., the husband of Mrs. Petra Gonzales and father of five children. Funeral arrangements were being made today at the Layng & Tinney Funeral Home.

Three Men Jailed On Peace Charges

Joe Rondon, 24; Frank Soto, 30, and Fred Pearce, 24, all Redwood City laborers, were freed from the county jail yesterday on $100 surety bond each, after being jailed on charges of disturbing the peace brought by James Caracudos, proprietor of a cafe at Bayshore Hwy. and Harbor Blvd., Belmont.

S. M. Kennel Show To Include Races

As an added attraction at the San Mateo Kennel Club's annual one-day, open-air, all-breed dog show at Bay Meadows racetrack next Sunday, there will be a four-team race around the one mile course.

The Great Danes of Jim McMurtie of Saratoga, winners of the Treasure Island race last Sunday, will be the scratch team, against a team of Chows from the Northern California Chow Chow Club, and two teams of Samoyedes (Greenland Sledge Dogs) from Sacramento and Sunnyvale. They will draw sleds on wheels.

The committee in charge of the show announces that judging of the dogs will be held in front of the grandstand in full view of everyone. Judging will be in the hands of the most distinguished group of arbiters ever imported to the Pacific Coast. Only one judge, Mrs. I. W. Hellman III of Hillsborough, will be from this state.

The show starts at 10 a.m. and ends at 6 p.m.

Fraud Charged In Storm Will

Charges that Anne Cassedy Ryan, sister of Mary Cassedy Storm, wealthy former voice teacher who died at her Burlingame home June 20, perpetrated a fraud in causing Mrs. Storm to assign to her in her will virtually her entire estate were contained in a contest of the will filed in superior court in Redwood City Monday by Helen Rae Storm and Percy Robert Storm, niece and nephew of the decedent.

The suit asks that the will be not admitted to probate, charging that it was made by Mrs. Storm May 15 this year when she was incompetent, unsound of mind, and under undue influence of Mrs. Ryan. Mrs. Ryan, who resides at 724 Farringdon Lane, Burlingame, was named executrix in the document, filed for probate June 30.

Value of the estate has not been determined, but it was set at more than $5000 by the petition for probate. Only beneficiary under the will is a brother-in-law, Dr. George Storm, of Helena, Ark. He was given $500, with the residue to go to Mrs. Ryan.

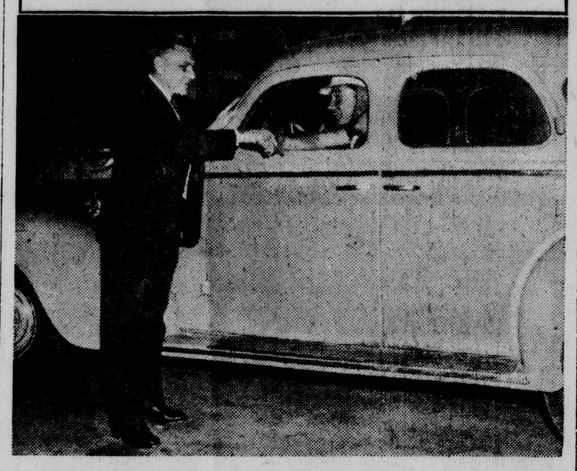
Helen Storm, who lives in Los Angeles, and her brother, a Hollywood resident, charge that there are 15 heirs at law, including Mrs. Ryan, themselves, nine relatives of Mrs. Storm's late husband and three other nephews and nieces of Mrs. Storm.

The complaint alleges that Mrs. Ryan attempted to prevent visits of any relatives during Mrs. Storm's last few months of life, although certain friends were permitted to see her. The nephew and niece also charge that the will was not signed by Mrs. Storm, nor by any person in her presence at her direction, and that her signature was not witnessed.

BAIRD TO RECOVER

Although condition of John Baird Jr., 17-year-old San Mateo high school student at Menlo School who was injured in an accident on Sand Hill Rd. Monday afternoon, was still "critical," Dr. Frank T. Conroy of Palo Alto Hospital said that the boy probably would recover.

1939 PACIFIC COAST CHAMPION



A 1939 Chrysler recently won the Pacific Coast Stock Car Racing Championship for the second consecutive time, when Wally Schock (pictured above receiving congratulations) placed first in a gruelling 250-mile race at Oakland, Calif. Twenty-five stock automobiles were entered, and according to Harry Dearborn, Chrysler-Plymouth dealer here, the event afforded dramatic proof of Chrysler's finer engineering and its ability to "stand the gaff."

Johns-Manville Sales Increase

Johns-Manville Corp., one of whose 17 plants is located in Redwood City, showed 8 per cent sales increase during the first six months of 1939 compared to a loss of $24,879 in the first six months of 1938, according to its semi-annual report. The report, "1939 Up to Now" is being prepared in special form for distribution to all employes as well as to stockholders in accordance with the policy of President Lewis H. Brown.

Total sales for the 1939 period were $24,220,496 compared to $22,476,458 for the first half of 1938. The improved showing was attributed not only to increased sales, but to steadier plant production, reduced labor turnover, and lower overhead. Salaries and wages were higher, it was reported. The company paid $262,500 to preferred stockholders, nothing to common stock owners.

Peninsulans See New County Movie

The new colored motion picture of San Mateo County produced by San Francisco Peninsula Inc. was brought to additional hundreds of county residents this week, according to SFPI officials. Guests of the Daly City Record in Daly City last night saw the film presented by Granville Browning, Burlingame Chamber of Commerce manager, and heard a talk on SFPI by Sam H. Winklebleck of Redwood City. The firm was shown Tuesday to the San Mateo-Burlingame Kiwanis Club, and Tuesday night to members of the San Carlos Chamber of Commerce.

A bronze memorial tablet to Will Rogers has been placed in the Parish Church of the Transfiguration (Little Church Around the Corner) in New York City. It was donated by the Lambs, actors' organization, of which Rogers was a member.

Stench Bomb Hurled Shop

A stench bomb tossed into the cocktail lounge of the picketed Fox Shoppe on El Camino Real in North Redwood City sometime between 3 and 10 a.m. Sunday was being investigated today by Redwood City police.

Nauseating fumes from the chemical bomb, according to Ernest A. Fox, manager and owner of the shop, had permeated the entire building before it was opened at 10 a.m. by Julian Sanglang, a Filipino janitor who came to clean up the place.

Although neutralizing agents and other chemicals immediately were applied, the strong acid, containing some tannic acid, according to police, caused two bartenders to become ill yesterday afternoon, and drove customers out of the lounge.

The bomb, a test tube sealed with wax at one end, was thrown through a small window in the rear door of the shop, which had been broken.

Fox, ired at the second attack on his place in the last month, offered a reward for information leading to the arrest of the guilty parties. Several weeks ago firecrackers were tossed into the building.

PTA President Calls Meeting

WOODSIDE, July 20—Mrs. Bernard Bernasque, new president of the Woodside Parent Teacher Association, is calling her executive board members together for their first meeting Tuesday afternoon at her home on Albion Ave.

The first action of the new officers, who will gather at 2 o'clock, will be to ratify the chairmen for the coming fiscal year. At 2:30 the chairmen themselves will join the group to formulate plans for coming activities.

American Legion Elects Officers

BELMONT, July 20—Lloyd Toby as new commander will head the San Carlos-Belmont American Legion post for the coming year. Other officers who will work with Toby include: David Horn, adjutant; Mike Proto, first vice commander; William Nugent, second vice commander; Henry Hicks, sergeant-at-arms, and John C. Burke, historian.

Delegates to the department convention in Oakland next month are Commander Toby; B. A. Lindberg, Mike Proto, with Jack Fisher, Lousi Vannier and George McPherson as alternates.

Overseas Veterans Plan Picnic Sunday

Ninety-first Division Association will hold its annual picnic Sunday at Skipper's Park, near Woodside, it was announced today. Hot barbecued steaks are to be prepared under the direction of Louis Belloni, South San Francisco police chief and machine gunner in the World War. J. Ray Gavin, past president of the division, is general picnic chairman.

BATHING BEAUTY

(Yes, That's Right—a Bathing Beauty.)

Nowadays it takes more than a figure and a bathing suit to win a beauty contest, judging by the Victorian demureness displayed by Doris Geisinger, Quaker schoolteacher who won out as "Miss Atlantic City." She will be hostess to contestants for the title of "Miss America, 1939."

Menlo Park Woman Hurt in Accident

PALO ALTO, July 20.—Mrs. Esther Bragoni, 37, Menlo Park, incurred a severe cut on the lower lip, bruises on the chest and right arm and possible rib fractures yesterday afternoon when the car she was driving collided with a machine driven by Dr. J. P. Mitchell, Stanford registrar, and city councilman of Palo Alto, at Alma St. and Kingsley Ave.

It was reported to police that the accident occurred when Mrs. Bragoni's car hit the rear end of Dr. Mitchell's, when the latter stopped. Both cars were going southeasterly on Alma.

Downey Nomination Urged by Bennett

Seeking the nomination of Sen. Sheridan Downey of Atherton to head the California delegation to the 1940 national Democratic convention, pledge cards are being circulated throughout the state by Pat Bennett, organizer of "action clubs."

Building permits in Toledo, O., for the first six months of 1939 were 50 per cent greater than for the entire year of 1938.

Today Is 9th Since Last Traffic Death

EVERY 16 MINUTES of every hour, one life is lost in a traffic accident.

EVERY 27 SECONDS of every minute, one person is injured in a traffic accident.

This is the average waste of life in traffic crashes in the United States, according to the National Safety Council.

You can help stop this slaughter. Whether you are a motorist or a pedestrian, resolve to co-operate in the nationwide campaign against this needless and tragic loss of life. If only for the example you may set for others, drive with good judgment . . . walk with common sense.

CITY JOINS PROTEST TO MUSICIAN UNION

Carpenter's Action Indorsed By Council

The Redwood City City Council Monday joined its voice to the protest against Musicians Union Local 6, which banned the Redwood City Municipal Band from the "Festival of Progress" ceremonies June 24 in connection with dedication of the city hall, library and courthouse annex.

A letter from Redwood City local of the carpenter's union, declaring the action of the musician's union hurt unionism in Redwood City rather than helping it, was indorsed by official city council resolution commending the stand taken by the carpenters.

PLAN STORAGE AREA

Authorization was given by the council to the city treasurer to transfer the balance of the unexpended funds provided for the city hall to the general fund to be used for beautification of the grounds, and a similar authorization to spend the balance in the wharf and warehouse fund for the paving of a lumber storage area "to prevent storing lumber during the Winter on the paved streets of Redwood City."

After Mrs. J. R. Hall, 629 Madison Ave., complained to the council of the danger of hives of bees, kept at 712 Fulton St. by a commercial bee raiser, the city fathers issued a citation for the bee owner to appear at the next meeting of the council to show cause why he should not be forced to abate the hives.

Followed a similar plea by Steven Duffy, and Arthur C. Davis, who live at 230 and 263 Iris St., respectively, that the council take some action on the nuisance caused by racing homing pigeons kept by residents in that neighborhood.

PROTEST HEARING SET

The council called a special hearing Aug. 7 to determine what regulations are to be taken to curtail such nuisances, requesting owners of domestic animals and fowl to present their side of the controversy at that time.

The council granted M. C. Ingraham, chairman of the First Baptist Church Board of Trustees, a permit to construct a temporary building on the church property at James and Hudson Sts., on condition that the majority of residents within a radius of 275 feet agree to its construction. Ingraham told the board the temporary structure was necessary to house additional Sunday school classes, and would be torn down when the church builds a permanent structure.

S. E. Manning and Charles Holt were given permits for the construction of signboards 10x30 feet on their respective properties at Center St. and El Camino Real, and Broadway, to advertise subdivisions.

An off-sale license for the sale of distilled spirits and beer and wine was issued to E. L. Lock, Broadway drug store proprietor.

CITY LOTS SOLD

The following city lots were sold:

To Mr. and Mrs. Armond Drivon, for $775, lot 17, block 15, in Central Park; to J. C. Schroeder, for $160, lot 36, block 4, in Jefferson Acres; to Walter Ryan, for $680, lot 11, block 18, in Eagle Hill; to Marie Nordi, for $300, lot 5, block 10, Mezesville; to Bill Hart, for $555, lot 6, block 11, Mezesville.

Mrs. Margaret Fleishman, widow of the late Officer Herman Fleishman, in a letter to the council, expressed her appreciation for the council's dedication of the Fleishman Playground on Woodside Rd. to the memory of her late husband.

"It is the remaining link between him and the community he loved and served so well," Mrs. Fleishman stated in her communication.

SFPI INDORSED

A request by the San Francisco Peninsula Inc. for a payment by Redwood City of $2600 annually in one lump sum instead of $1300 semi-annually, was referred to the city manager. Redwood City Kiwanis Club urged continuation of SFPI advertising.

Deeds of 20 lots from the county, through George Paul acting as trustee for the City of Redwood City, were accepted. The council pointed out that Paul, a city official, did not have the privilege of purchasing lots at a low price, but merely was acting for the city.

A resolution prepared by Councilman Paul A. McCarthy, expressing gratitude for the long and faithful service by the late I. C. Drathman, building inspector and health officer, was adopted, a copy to go to Mrs. Drathman. A second resolution, prepared by McCarthy, expressing "regret" for the $150,000 curtailment of the El Camino Real widening fund, which was requested by the council at its July 3 meeting, was read and adopted.

In the latter resolution, the attention of the California Highway Commission was directed to the "absolute necessity of appropriating sufficient funds in the present biennium to acquire all property rights for the project so that paving of the highway may be completed "not later than the next succeeding biennium."

City Clerk B. E. Myers was instructed to notify the Sequoia High School Board of Trustees of the city's plan for future widening of James St., and for the school trustees to plan accordingly in further construction.

Contract with the Chamber of Commerce for an annual $1300 appropriation for publicity was renewed, as was a $15 expenditure for publicity in the dedication of the Standard Oil Co. plant here this week.

Mayor Louis C. Christensen was granted permission to leave the state for a two weeks' period. He revealed he intended to go to Oregon next week for a vacation.

Mrs. Susan E. Huyck Succumbs to Illness

Mrs. Susan Ellsworth Huyck, mother of Charles L. Huyck, 613 Brewster Ave., Redwood City, died in San Francisco yesterday after an illness of two weeks. She was the wife of the late Charles Van Ness Huyck, mother of Mrs. Elizabeth Young of San Francisco, and grandmother of Ellsworth Van Ness Young.

Funeral services will be conducted tomorrow afternoon from Grays in San Francisco.

Greyhound Driver Recovering, Report

Clarence Gentry, Pacific Greyhound bus driver, suffered only minor injuries in the head-on crash near Bakersfield Monday, according to advices received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Gentry of San Carlos today. Gentry, 22, was listed as a Los Angeles resident, but he lives in San Mateo with his brother, according to the parents.

The crash killed two Los Angeles residents, Rafael Munoz, 35, and Rafael Talebano, 30, and injured five other persons, when Talebano's automobile hit the bus at the Famosa underpass.

Gentry suffered lacerations and shock, his parents were told.

Legion Drum Corps Seeks New Members

Sam Salmirs, head of the American Legion's county council drum and bugle corps, today issued a call for recruits. The organization appeared Sunday in San Francisco in the YLI-YMI parade. Gordon Folley, Gloria Fischer, and Nancy Coad are the baton swingers for the organization. Salmirs asked recruits to report Wednesday at 8 p.m. on lower Broadway, Redwood City.

Tanker Sails At Low Tide

The Hawaiian Standard, first oil tanker to dock at the Port of Redwood City, and first ship to nose its bow into the mud outside the harbor's channel, sailed uneventfully at 8:20 p.m. yesterday after discharging a cargo of 300,000 gallons of gasoline. The 1323-ton ship sailed at low tide, but experienced no difficulty in clearing the harbor according to Port Manager Walter F. Murphy.

E. W. Danielson, manager of Standard Oil Co.'s new marine plant at the harbor, said the gasoline went into storage without incident, and reshipment by tank truck and tank car was being started today.

Danielson said future shipments of oil and gasoline from Richmond would come by barge, the next one in about a week.

City and county officials gathered at the harbor yesterday morning to welcome the Hawaiian Standard, but welcoming ceremonies were delayed until the afternoon when a San Francisco pilot unfamiliar with the Redwood City port channel stuck the ship in the mud near Beacon 2. The tanker docked at 1 p.m. when the official program continued.

Members of the official party and representatives of Standard Oil Co. were guests at a luncheon sponsored jointly by the Kiwanis Club and the Chamber of Commerce.

The reception was handled by a committee composed of Sam H. Winklebleck, William Werder and J. A. Buhler.

LYNCH TO TELL SFPI COUNTY'S ROAD NEEDS

Following the board of supervisors' favorable action yesterday on the proposal by Supervisor John A. Lynch that an immediate attack on the county's traffic problems be launched, Lynch announced today that San Francisco Peninsula Inc. directors will meet Friday to start an investigation.

The SFPI directors will meet at 8 o'clock in the Burlingame Chamber of Commerce, with Lynch, who is chairman of the board of supervisors' roads and highways committee. He will explain the needs of the county in regard to expansion of highway facilities, particularly in the north end of the county, and for a more direct, uninterrupted route to the heart of San Francisco.

CRISIS SEEN

SFPI, as an organization designed to promote the welfare of the Peninsula, including the northern end of Santa Clara County, is the logical group to work on the problem, Lynch said.

The supervisor yesterday declared that in five years the county will be faced with traffic problems equal to that of the famous Colma "bottleneck" of 15 years ago, unless immediate steps are taken to expand the highway facilities. He suggested that while the Junipero Serra Blvd. extension proposal cannot be forgotten as an important project for the future, the urgency of the need for more highways demands that something be done right now on Bayshore Hwy.

Lynch pointed out that while he considers the Bayshore development the most logical at the present time his views there do not mean that he has forsaken the idea of widening El Camino Real from Redwood City to Palo Alto. That project is already underway, with the state having appropriated $511,800 this biennium for the purchase of right-of-way, and its completion will be pressed along with the drive for improvement of other of the county's roadways, Lynch averred.

Principal development of yesterday afternoon's session of the board of supervisors was the agreement that County Executive Frederick Peterson should sit in with the board hereafter on all private budget caucuses. Heretofore this year Peterson has not been sitting with the board to consider the 1939-40 appropriations, although he has made some recommendations, as is required by the charter.

JOINS BOARD CAUCUSES

The action was precipitated by the reading of a letter from the Redwood City Kiwanis Club which asked that the board continue its appropriation of $10,000 annually for SFPI. Peterson said he had recommended $9000 this year.

A letter from Pres. Leo Kowalski of the San Mateo County Taxpayers' League demanded that the board effect a downward revision in the costs of government, charging that "confiscation of property through taxation is not far off."

$300 FOR POLICE

The letter charged that the board turned a deaf ear to protests from the league and other organizations on the salary budget, and not only boosted the budget but "made other unnecessary expenditures."

The board appropriated $300, to be disbursed at $100 monthly, to pay half the salary of the special officer for the newly-formed Emerald Lake police district for the next three months. Residents of the district subscribe the other half of the $200 monthly salary for the officer, which will have to be paid in that way until next year because the district was formed too late to be included in the tax assessments for this year.

UNION PROTESTS

Supervisor Lynch was appointed representative of the board to explain to A. H. Randall, secretary of the Central Labor Council, that the board had no part in arranging the Festival of Progress program in Redwood City June 25. Randall, on behalf of the council, addressed a letter to the board protesting "the action of the board in ignoring the just plea of union musicians for participation in the festival program." The Native Sons of the Golden West handled the program, the board declared.

A letter from Secretary Adele De Witt of Labor's Non-Partisan League demanding that the county appropriate larger sums for relief and for WPA participation was filed without comment.

The board ordered sold to a San Francisco firm, best of four bidders, $10,000 in bonds at $102 premium and bearing 3 per cent interest, the return from which will purchase a site for a second Belmont School. Belmont residents voted the bond issue June 2.

A copy of the budget was ordered sent, when completed, to Alta California Inc. in Sacramento, as requested by the organization in its campaign against the effort to consolidate counties.

14 Boy Scout Cubs Return From Camp

Fourteen Boy Scout Cubs from the Redwood City and Atherton Cub Packs arrived in Redwood City at 10:30 a.m. today from the Boy Scout Training Camp in Memorial Park. Edward A. Barrer, scout director, said a splendid record had been made by the cubs in camp this year. Not one major accident took place, he said.

Swimming, boating and life saving were stressed by Bernard Schindler, senior waterfront director, and safety precautions were under direction of Dr. William Okker.

Camp staff members are closing all activities in the Memorial Park camp this week to prepare for the opening of the Sierra camp at Kit Carson Pass next Wednesday.

AVOID COOKING ODORS

To avoid unpleasant cooking odors, strong-flavored vegetables are best cooked tied in parchment cooking paper.

Municipal Band To Play Sunday

Redwood City Municipal Band today announced it would conduct its first open air concert Sunday at 4 p.m. at Native Daughters Park near the county courthouse. Band officers announced the concert will be held in response to numerous requests, and that the open air concerts would be continued if the first is well received.

The concert will be free, it was stated, and there is ample parking space around the park for automobiles.

Driggers To Visit Redwood City Aerie

Roy L. Driggers, Porterville, state president of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, will come to Redwood City Friday to meet with Aerie 418, according to Paul E. Lowe, secretary. Driggers, now assistant school superintendent and attendance officer in Kern County, will be honored by initiation of a special class of candidates, and by a banquet following the meeting, it was announced. The reception will be held in Odd Fellows Hall.

Firemen Complete Plans for Dance

WOODSIDE, July 20 — At the regular July meeting of the Woodside Veteran Firemen, Peter Duzanica presided at the first business session since his installation in June.

Of prime interest was the planning of final arrangements for the Firemen's 13th annual dance, which will be held Saturday evening at the New Portola Park on Santa Cruz Rd. Andrew Loushin is in charge of this year's event.

Carl Shine of Woodside was admitted to the membership of local Veteran Firemen at this month's meeting.
